DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species of the claimed invention:

Specie A, drawn to claim 1 and its dependent claims 2-11, has the unique feature of a carrier section having an average shrinkage of about 0.5% or less during an average shrinkage test, which is not found in species B-E, or the unique feature of a messenger section and a web, which is not found in specie F;

Specie B, drawn to claims 12 and its dependent claims 13-22, has the unique feature of an average coefficient of thermal expansion of a carrier section being about  $5.0 \times 10^{-3} \text{ } \%/^{\circ}\text{C}$ , which is not found in species A and C, or the unique feature of a messenger section and a web, which is not found in species D-F;

Specie C, drawn to claims 23 and its dependent claims 24-33, has the unique feature of a roving having a resin matrix being water-based acrylic composition, whereby a maximum delta attenuation of an optical waveguide during thermal cycling is about 0.3 dB/20 meters or less, which is not found in species A and B, or the unique feature of a messenger section and a web, which is not found in species D-F;

Specie D, drawn to claim 34 and its dependent claims 35-40, has the unique feature of an optical waveguide being disposed with an fiber optic cable, which is not found in species A-C, or the unique feature of a roving having a resin matrix being water-based acrylic composition, whereby a maximum delta attenuation of an optical waveguide during thermal cycling is about 0.3 dB/20 meters or less, which is not found in species A, B, E and F;

Species E, drawn to claim 41 and its dependent claims 42-47, has the unique feature of an optical waveguide being disposed with an fiber optic cable, which is not found in species A-C, or the unique feature of an average coefficient of thermal expansion of a carrier section being about  $5.0 \times 10^{-3} \text{ }^\circ\text{C}$ , which is not found in species A, C, D and F;

Species F, drawn to claim 48 and its dependent claims 49-54, has the unique feature of an optical waveguide, which is not found in species A-C, or the unique feature of a carrier section having an average shrinkage of about 0.5% or less during an average shrinkage test, which is not found in species B-E.

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, no claim is generic.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Charlie Peng whose telephone number is (571) 272-2177. The examiner can normally be reached on 9 am - 6 pm M-F.

If attempts to reach the examiner by telephone are unsuccessful, the examiner's supervisor, Frank Font can be reached on (571) 272-2415. The fax phone number for the organization where this application or proceeding is assigned is 703-872-9306.
